VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1868. NO. 259.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the New York World.

IMPOSING RESTRICTIONS ON STATES.

The proposed "omnibus" act for admitting several of the reconstructed States is chiefly remarkable for imposing upon the States disabilities not imposed by the Constitution. We copy the first section of the bill:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That each of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, and Florida shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as a State of the Union, when the Legislature of such State shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as article 14, upon the following fundamental conditions: That there shall never be in such States any denial or abridgment of the elective franchise to any person by reason or on account of race or color, excepting Indians not taxed; and the State of Georgia shall only be entitled and admitted to representation upon this further fundamental condition—that the first and third subdivisions of section 17 of the fifth article of the constitution of said State, except the proviso to the first subdivision, shall be null and void; and that the General Assembly of said State, by solemn public act, shall declare the assent of the State to the foregoing fundamental condition.

Such a condition is not worth the paper on which it is written. The Chicago Convention itself had to confess in its platform that in "the loyal States" Congress has no right to interfere with the elective franchise. But if it does not possess this right in all the States, it has it in none. We will grant, for the sake of the argument, that the unrepresented States are, to all intents and purposes, nothing but territories; but it cannot be disputed that when they shall have been readmitted, they will be States, standing on the same footing and entitled to the same rights as the others. On what legal or constitutional ground, then, can such a condition be enforced?

If such a condition can stand at all, it must be upon the ground of a compact between particular States, each acting for itself, and the Federal Government. But there is a prior compact of superior obligation to which all the States are parties, and the proposed condition is a violation of that compact. The relations of the State to the Federal Government cannot be changed by a compact made by them individually and Congress, but only by amendments to the Constitution, in which three-fourths of the States simultaneously concur. If, by a compact with a particular State, its relations to the Federal Government can be changed, the rights of every State in the Union may, in like manner, be changed, and every State be put on a different footing from any of the others. Our Federal system may thus be completely altered and the Constitution abolished, by supplanting it in one State at a time by a compact between that State and Congress. A bare majority of Congress and one contracting State may do what two-thirds of Congress and three-fourths of the States are not competent to do by amendments to the Constitution; for, when the Constitution is amended in the regular way, the change affects all the States alike.

This doctrine that a State may change its relations to the Federal Government by compact might not, in the end, bear all the fruits the Republican party expects from it. For, if a State may surrender its constitutional rights by a compact, it may by a subsequent compact regain them. Such a condition as Congress attempts to impose is not only legally null, but practically futile. If Louisiana wishes to make, like Michigan, distinctions founded on race and color, it has only to wait until Congress is Democratic, and then by joint consent abrogate this compact. Or, the first Democratic Congress can repeal this restriction, and leave the States as free as they ever were.—Or, still again, the States, after their re admission, may amend their Constitutions and change the rules of suffrage; and then see what steps even a Republican Congress can take to reverse their action. When they are again in the Union their rights as States will depend on the Constitution, and as the Constitution incontestibly permits Ohio and Michigan to exclude negroes from voting, every State that chooses may do the same, unless it can be made to appear that the Constitution uses different language in respect to a part of the States from what it does in respect to the rest. But, in good truth, the perfect equality of the States is the clearest and most fundamental thing in the Constitution.

THE NEGRO DISTURBANCES AT WASHINGTON.

The riotous and murderous conduct of the blacks at Washington after the charter election had resulted in a radical victory may well alarm the country. It matters but little whether the first blow, which was the proximate, accidental cause of the riot, was struck by a white or by a black hand. All are unanimous in agreeing, however, that an inoffensive white man, a soldier, was the first victim of negro violence. Cut across the ribs with a razor, he died in a short time. Another white man was killed by a negro, who cut him across the wrist with a razor, severing an artery. The house of a conservative judge of election was entered and gutted by a negro mob, which was prevented only by the strategy of a policeman from demolishing the office of the National Intelligencer. Restaurants were stoned, forcibly entered and robbed. The windows of other buildings were broken, and the wife of a police officer was struck on the shoulder by one of the missiles. Throughout the city a large number of negroes were arrested, most of whom were found to be armed with muskets, clubs and pistols, but, as if indicating the savage ferocity of the infuriated blacks, their favorite weapon was found to be the razor.

What strikes us, however, as a still more horrible detail, is the incendiary speech addressed to the negro mob by Mr. Forney. Our correspondent, in his letter which we published yesterday, states that the ex-Secretary of the Senate told this mob that there were two regiments of Lee's rebel troops in the city with hostile intent against the colored people.

No language can be too strong in reprobation of such a direct appeal to the worst passions of an ignorant and excitable race. Its tendency to provoke dangerous, if not fatal, collisions between whites and blacks is inevitable. Yet this is the tendency of the entire policy of the Jacobin leaders of the dominant radical party. What Charles Lamb would have classed among the imperfect sympathies between the two races, these blind leaders of the blind are trying their utmost to convert into cruel antipathies. An infinity of painful consequences must ensue, culminating, if not providentially checked, in a repetition on a grander scale of the horrors of the St. Domingo massacre.

We firmly believe that both the former slave holders of the South and their emancipated slaves would gradually have adopted themselves to their new relation to each other, reaping mutual advantages from it, if fanatical intermeddlers had not wickedly sown the seeds of a dreadful conflict of races. The first fruits of this conflict are visible in the recent deplorable scenes at Washington. A full harvest of destruction will be the final and terrible result.—N. Y. Herald

From the World.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION—ELABORATE PREPARATIONS TO RECEIVE THE DELEGATES.

Great preparations are now being made for the numerous delegations to be in New York to take part in the Democratic National Convention. Irving Hall has been engaged by the State Central Committee of Pennsylvania for the delegation from the Keystone State, and Masonic Hall will furnish sleeping quarters for the entire Pendleton escort, which is to number over five hundred men. The Academy of Music will resound to the eloquence of Democratic orators, and the Circus building will be engaged for outside Southern delegations. The Everett House will furnish board and lodging to two hundred and fifty delegates and their friends from Maryland and other border States. The Hancock men will congregate at the Astor House in large numbers, and negotiations are now going on with the proprietors of this house and delegations from Illinois and Connecticut. The Connecticut men have a desire to secure the ladies' ordinary for a caucus-room to meet in. Five hundred delegates and their friends are expected at the Astor House.—Accommodations have been made ready at the St. Nicholas Hotel for twelve hundred persons who are expected to be present. The Chase men and supporters of Gov. English, of Connecticut, will be found at this hotel principally. At the Southern and New York hotels preparations on a grand scale are being perfected for delegates from the border and Southern States, and the denizens of these hostelries will once more behold the familiar faces of staunch Southern Democrats. The Everett House is negotiating with the Vermont delegation, and it is probable that the Green Mountain boys will be found here in large numbers. The Pendleton men will aggregate themselves at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The irrepressible, indefatigable, and never-to-be beaten Colonel Woolley, of Cincinnati, who had the honor of kicking Butler some weeks since in Washington, and who is now enduring imprisonment for his country's sake, has secured rooms for the West Virginia delegation at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. The New York State delegation, numbering sixty-five persons, marshalled by Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, will stop at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, as will also twenty six delegates from Indiana, headed by their chairman, Lafayette Devlin. The Illinois delegation of thirty persons, under the charge of Storer, of the Chicago Times, and the Ohio delegation of forty two persons, with their gallant chairman, General G. W. McCooke, will also occupy quarters at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Committee and caucus-rooms have been engaged at all the hotels named from the 1st day of July until the close of the Convention, which will begin its session on the 4th of July. It will cost each delegate about seven dollars a day to live in this city during the Convention, including the necessary trifling expenses of barber and bootblack fees, and car fare.—Many leading statesmen and politicians have engaged rooms at the different hotels from the 20th and 25th of June until the close of the Convention, in order to have time to perfect their manipulations and organization of the country delegations. The admirers of Charles Francis Adams, from Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and Vermont, will repose their aching limbs at the Clarendon Hotel. Tammany Hall will be fully ready by the 25th of June.

HOW IT WAS DONE AND HOW IT WILL BE UNDONE.

Each day but serves to fasten the conviction upon us that those white men in North Carolina,—exceeding in numbers far beyond what we could possibly have anticipated,—who voted for the mongrel Constitution, committed a most grave (we will not say an irretrievable) error. It would be a poor satisfaction to know, as we do, that hundreds are now realizing the fact, and expressing repentance for their fatuity, if we did not reflect that much of the mischief, which has been or is about to be consummated, may yet be undone, when the State is admitted as a co-equal member of the Union,—as it must be, in the light of the Constitution, when admitted at all; and if we did not further believe that thousands, who thus voted, will unite with the Democratic and Conservative masses in the State, in contributing to the overthrow of Radicalism in the Presidential election.

We heard an incident related, a day or two since, which illustrates, at once, the disgraceful expedients which were employed by the Radicals, in the late election, to influence the votes of the timid and unreflecting white men, as well as the reasons which really operated upon many such to vote for the Constitution and the Radical ticket,—though, in this immediate case, they failed of influencing the brave and independent man upon whom they were brought to bear. What we heard may be best related in the form of a dialogue:

Radical—Is it possible that you intend voting against the Constitution?

Citizen—That, certainly, is my intention.

Radical—Why, you will not get back into the Union, if you do.

Citizen—I feel the necessity of "getting back," for the sake of peace and quiet. But these will never come by restoration on the basis of this Constitution. It will aggravate the discord and troubles of the times. I prefer military rule, bad as it is.

Radical—Don't you know that your property will be in danger of confiscation, if you do?

Citizen—Well, I do not believe it; if so, I made what I now have, and I had rather have it go, than that my family and my people should be degraded, and my State ruined, by this thing. I can make a living, hereafter, as I have done heretofore.

Radical—But don't you know that the names of all those voting against the Constitution must be written on the back of their ballots, and that Gen. Canby and the military will mark all such as disloyal, and that you will probably be arrested?

Citizen—I believe Gen. Canby to be an honest man, and I am not only not afraid, but I am anxious, to let him and all the world know that I am too honest to seek the degradation of my neighbors.

Radical—But you formerly belonged to our League, and although you have announced your withdrawal, that does not absolve you from your oath to vote as you are ordered by the League. You will be at once and severely dealt with.

Citizen—I do not look at the matter in that light. I have publicly quit the infamous concern, into which I went unreflectingly. I have shaken the polluted dust from my feet, and am no longer bound by the obligation. I defy you and your threats. Whatever you may say, there is law enough left in the land to punish you for even such menaces.

And thus the conversation, in effect, went on. As we have remarked, there were probably thousands of weak-kneed and ignorant men, who were influenced by such considerations and deterred by such threats as those above presented. Already they are waking up to a sense of their grave and lamentable error, and they will turn upon their deceivers the first legitimate opportunity that presents itself.

We repeat the prediction, which we have heretofore made, that the clamor for a change in the new Constitution will commence within three months after it goes into operation. Nine-tenths of the white men in North Carolina, who voted for it, are bitterly hostile to the negro-equality spirit which pervades it; but they were either deceived into the idea that no such thing was in it, or that their property or lives would be in danger, if they voted against it. From such men will the demand for change first come. Mark that. And when our people shall have witnessed the practical workings of this cobbled-up patch-work of Puritan spitefulness, Radical malignity and stupid ignorance,—shall have seen the spectacle of imbecile Judges disgracing the bench, and other incompetent officers prostituting their positions, and the other evils that will grow out of it,—the clamor will be universal. We expect to see even the more sensible of the negroes disgusted with the work of their Radical masters. "Watch and Wait."

RECONSTRUCTION—A PRACTICAL AND STRIKING ILLUSTRATION.—A scene was presented, at a certain nameless place in this State, a few days since, which illustrated, in the strongest and yet fairest possible light, the practical working of the Radical iniquity, sometimes called, by way of satire, "Reconstruction." The occasion was a dining. There were present, at the table, three ex-Governors, an ex-Justice of the Supreme Court, one or two ex-members of Congress, and other distinguished men.—The only person in the room who could vote or hold office, was the negro man who waited on the table! Here was the whole thing in a nut shell: Wisdom, intelligence and virtue disfranchised, because they are virtue, intelligence and wisdom, and ignorance enfranchised, because it can be used in the infamous interests of an infamous party!

CONGRESS.

The proceedings of this body, taken as a whole, present a most singular contrast with those of any other national legislature now in existence, and bear no resemblance to itself, for the first eighty years of our history. Never, in the annals of the government, have so many small men inveigled themselves into either House as now. The Senate, in point of ability, statesmanship and wisdom in legislation, falls far below the lower House before the war, and the House, in the lack of practical sense and ability, can scarcely be excelled, except by a Southern scallawag Convention or Legislature.

The singular method of taking up bills essential to the business of the country, discussing them an hour or so, and laying them by for the nonce, to take up something which has a more direct partisan bearing,—and the frequency with which bills, involving most important matters, are hurried through without maturing them or taking time for discussion and consideration—is shocking to men of sense, who feel any concern for the well-being of the country. The only palpable design of the present legislation of Congress, which stands out prominently before the country, is, to take care of the Radical party, leaving the great elements of industry, commerce and enterprise to take care of themselves.

A critical examination of the jejune, inharmonious and characteristic legislation of the party, in reference to reconstruction, from beginning to end, excites the ridicule and contempt of men of sense everywhere. Any attempt to construe it, in accordance with the organic or statutory law of the nation, runs the investigator plump against a snag at every turn, causing not only variant constructions among its executors, but producing difficulties at each step which cannot be untied, but must be cut, to enable the interpreter to get through them at all.

We have been asked, repeatedly, of late, "What will Congress do?" "When shall we get in?" and such like queries. Our answer has been, "we shall get in,"—not because we can determine that matter by what Congress has done or by what is said in the discussions upon that subject, but because we know that reconstruction will be worked through somehow or "somehow else," because it is a "party necessity" to claim before the people, in the approaching campaign, "we have restored the Union," "we have effected reconstruction, and the glory is due to the Radical party." The party, it is true, encounters serious difficulties in reconstructing on its own plans and in its own way. Many are dubious, uncertain about the practical working, but especially concerned, whether, after all, it will work to the profit of the party. Neither House really seems to be in a condition to legislate. The failure of impeachment has dumbfounded its advocates, and their wits are put to the rack to mend the breach by some kind of movement, at which the activity of Radical invention seems to stagger. In the meantime, the prospects of the party grow no better, and, between their party rage and their desire to play a trump card, they wander, amid doubt and fear, into inextricable mazes. The mountain, however, which has been so long in labor, will doubtless bring forth its mouse, monster, with, however, such a huge snout and tail, as will seriously prevent locomotion.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.

The recent exposition of the views of this distinguished gentleman, contained in a Washington letter of the New York Herald, (a telegraphic abstract of which we published,) has excited considerable and very general interest. The following extracts from Richmond papers of Saturday confirm the correctness of the statements of the Herald's correspondent:

From the Richmond Whig.

"In response to the general desire to know whether the views and opinions of public affairs attributed to Chief Justice Chase by a Washington correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of June 2, are those really entertained by him, we are at liberty to say that the Chief Justice stated to an old acquaintance and fellow-member of Congress, who called on him in this city, Thursday, that the letter in question, about the authorship of which he knew nothing, defined very exactly his sentiments, opinions and position."

From the Richmond Examiner and Enquirer.

"We learned yesterday morning from a personal and political friend of Chief Justice Chase, that the telegram from Washington to the New York Herald, concerning the political opinions of the Chief Justice, was correct; that he had left the Republican party, and, as parties now stand, was a Democrat; that, notwithstanding he is in favor of universal manhood suffrage, he believes that the Constitution of the United States places the matter of suffrage in the hands of the people of the different States, and thinks no other power has the right to interfere with it.

But the so-called Reconstruction measures have assumed to take the question of suffrage out of the hands of the people of the Southern States as defined in all our Constitutions, viz: the white people, and they have introduced an element of political power wholly unknown to our Constitutions and laws, viz: negro voters. Now, the most important question in the politics of the times relates to the constitutionality of these "Reconstruction measures," and the means by which they can be set aside as unconstitutional. The appeal taken in the McArdle case was intended to obtain the decision of the Supreme Court on the question, and we would rather hear the opinion of Mr. Chief Justice Chase setting aside those laws than all the talk from now till doomsday of Mr. Chase, the Presidential aspirant, and his friends and supporters. If Mr. Chase wants to bid for Democratic support, let him put himself squarely upon the Democratic doctrine that the "Reconstruction measures" are all unconstitutional, and shall be set aside! Let him pronounce that opinion in the McArdle case."

THE NEW YORK Herald says: "The election in Oregon indicates that the name of Grant has no magic to change the verdict against the Republican party that is written in the mind of the whole people."

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Precisely. The eternal nigger is the price of white men's lives in the City of Washington.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

The following views of the Rochester (N. Y.) Union as to the obligation resting upon the National Democratic Convention to present an unexceptionable ticket and platform for the support and endorsement of the people, are so just and sensible, that we heartily endorse them, and give them that leading place in our columns, which is devoted to editorial matter. It says: Never since the organization of the Democratic party was there such a plain and straight and easy road to victory before it as now, and all that is required to enter upon it is honest, out-spoken, practical action by the New York Convention. The Republican party is beggared in its leaders, and demoralized in its rank and file—corrupt and rotten to its very core, and only held together by the cohesive power of public plunder.—It has nominated a man for President who, concede all that is claimed for his military career, is politically a literal Know Nothing—a man who has lived forty-six years, and who has never been known to utter, by tongue or pen, a word that evinces civil capacity, or shows the most distant approach to statesmanship. It has laid down a platform that affirms the grossest inequalities in the political and material rights of the people—making one rule of suffrage in one section, and another rule of suffrage in another section—exempting from taxation thousands of millions of one class of personal property owned in bulk by money-lenders, and putting the whole public burden upon real estate and the shoulders of the producing masses—paying the people's gold to the tax exempt bondholders, and furnishing the people themselves with a depreciated rag currency.

The Democracy are upon the offensive against this candidate and platform, and to bear them down must take bold, positive issue upon the financial questions which touch every man's pocket, and nominate statesmen—men of the Jeffersonian standard, who are honest, capable, and faithful to the Constitution—for the office of President and Vice President; men whose record is such as to defy attack, and so allow of making the canvass one purely of principle. No man has any business to look for a nomination at the hands of the New York Convention whose personal position is such, whether through any fault of his or not, as to offer a vulnerable spot to the assault of the enemy. The Democratic masses have little preference for men, and, representing them, the Union has refrained from urging the claims of any candidate. It believes the policy pursued by the Democratic State Convention of last Fall, in selecting unexceptionable candidates, the true one to pursue at New York. That policy presented men of the highest and purest character, who were personally unassailable, enabling us to fight the battle upon the issues, and hold the attention of the people to them, and to it we owe our success crowned with fifty thousand majority. Had the Convention undertaken the business of personal rewards and vindications, we would have lost the State. Our campaign of 1867 in New York furnishes an example that may be imitated with profit now in the nation.

RADICAL LOVE FOR SOLDIERS.—The Radicals in Congress have turned out the brave General Morgan, of Ohio, from his seat, and put in the Radical contestant, one Delano. Gen. Morgan's sin was in having fought for the Union and getting only about seven hundred actual majority in his District.

Again, on Saturday, in Executive session, the Senate rejected, as Minister to England, the distinguished soldier, who, at one time, led the Union armies.

These Radicals profess high regard for the soldiers, but it is only for that portion of them who are Radicals. The most scarred veteran among them, if he is opposed to Radicalism and negro equality, is denounced as a "Copperhead." We have seen but few of the rank and file of the Federal army, who do not appreciate and despise this hypocrisy.

NORTH WESTERN N. C. RAILROAD.—In noticing this Road, on Saturday, we inadvertently stated that the County Court of Stokes had ratified the County subscription thereto, when we should have said the County Court of Forsyths. The necessary tax has been laid to meet the first instalment, which will fall due on the 1st. of January, 1869. We are pleased to learn that there is every prospect that this important enterprise will be pushed rapidly forward.

THE WASHINGTON ELECTION.—In the late Washington municipal election the radical candidate for Mayor, Sayles J. Bowen, was elected by some seventy-four majority upon a total poll of eighteen thousand votes. There are over eight thousand colored voters in the city, who voted, with few exceptions, the radical ticket. Now, when it is considered that Congress over the District of Columbia has "exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever," and that for the last seven years this legislation has been directed to the object of making Washington a radical city, the result of the election shows that radicalism, even in its central stronghold, is an uphill business, and that when the break in the fall fairly begins—as now appears probable—against the reign of the radical party, its overthrow will be as signal and decisive as was the downfall and dissolution of the old whig party in 1852. The Oregon election points that way.—New York Herald.

POLITICAL DISABILITIES IN THE SOUTH.—The following letter, without date, addressed by Senator Sumner to a citizen of Columbia, S. C., we find in the Charleston papers:

SENATE CHAMBER, WASHINGTON CITY.

DEAR SIR: I have your letter of the 19th, in reference to the removal of your political disabilities. I am not sure that the time has yet come to make exceptions to our general policy in individual cases; to do so would be to open the door to innumerable applications, and once open it would be difficult to shut it. I hope to meet such cases as yours by some general enactment, and as soon as the condition of the country will permit, I shall be the first to advocate the removal of all disabilities under which you labor at present.

Very truly, CHARLES SUMNER.

The Radicals, it seems, are getting disgusted with Sickles already. Colonel Forney, in his letter from Chicago to the Philadelphia Press, speaking of the selection of Hawley as President of the Convention by the committee on organization, says: He attained that position by a single vote over Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, the latter's own State, New York, refusing to vote for him.

REMAINS OF THE LATE STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS.—Remarkable Preservation.—The remains of the late Stephen A. Douglas were removed from the grave at Chicago, on Wednesday, to their final resting place in the mausoleum, under the auspices of the trustees of the Douglas Monument Association, accompanied by a son of Mr. Douglas and others. Upon removing the lid covering the glass, the face of the illustrious Senator was found to be in a remarkable state of preservation, almost as natural as when buried seven years ago, excepting that the eyes are more sunken, the nose more contracted and the surface of the forehead somewhat indented or pitted; but the complexion is very fair, the contour of the head and face apparently unchanged and the expression was quite natural and plainly recognizable. The hair looks as black and glossy as ever, and the raiment as new and tidy as when first put on, not presenting the least evidence of mildew or discoloration.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Commercial says that a letter has been received from General McClellan, in reply to one from a friend, asking permission to present his name for nomination at the Fourth of July Convention. The General earnestly begs that this shall not be done, urges the nomination of a new man—a statesman who will command the respect, admiration, and enthusiastic support of the combined anti Radical elements of the whole country, and pledges himself, as soon as the nomination is made, to come home and canvass wherever needed in behalf of the New York nominations.

The Constitution of Georgia, as framed by the Convention and ratified by the people, contains a clause repudiating all debts contracted prior to the 1st of June, 1865, which clause will undoubtedly be expunged by Congress. Only two classes of debts will be excluded from the jurisdiction of the Courts under the report of the Senate Committee,—those contracted in aid of the rebellion, and those for the purchase or hire of slaves. All other debts are to be held sacred.—Forney's Chronicle.

Crazy old Dr. Breckenridge, who is opposed to all sorts of union, even with the Lord, said, in a recent Grant-Colfax meeting in Albany, that "New York must be carried against the Roman Catholics, even if New York City has to be burned to the ground." The experiment was tried once and failed.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $9,000,000.

No. POLICIES 52,700.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $1,884,768,51.

DIVIDENDS, 50 per cent.

In these days of competition between Life Insurance Companies, much is said by rival Agents, each claiming the Company he represents to be the best. Without saying anything in disparagement of any Company, or, by simple assertion, anything in its favor, the ÆTNA begs leave to refer to the annexed table, compiled from the OFFICIAL and SWORN statements of twenty of the largest Companies in America, made to the Insurance Commissioners of the State of New York. The table shows the ratio of expense to each $100 received by each Company, for the three years ending January 1, 1868.

It will be seen that the expenses of the ÆTNA are much lower than any other Company; and, after the average is struck, the ÆTNA, in 1865, saved $10.41 out of each $100 received—more than the average; in 1866, $7.17, and in 1867, $4.90. The receipts of the ÆTNA were, in 1865, $1,655,309; in 1866, $3,522,376, and in 1867, $5,129,447. Consequently, its savings in the three years were $877,913-39, to which add 7 per cent. interest to July 1, 1868: $120,287.64, making a grand total of $797,907 03 saved over the average of all other Companies.

This is the measure of success, as applied by the Hon Elizur Wright, the greatest of American actuaries, to all Companies, and simply means that the Company whose RATIO of expense to its income is the least, is the best able to pay large dividends to its policy holders. That the ÆTNA is THAT Company, these comparisons of official statements plainly show.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The Books you want—a series of attractive announcements: Geo. W. Heptinstall, Box 7, Enfield, N. C. Oil of Bay Leaves, Rosadalis, Glue: Jor dan & Carr, Petersburg, Va.

Information wanted of any relatives of Isaac Humphreys, born in North Carolina, and late of Vancouver's Island and San Francisco: Apply at this office, or to Gen D. H. Hill, Charlotte. Humphrey died, without heirs, leaving some $30,000.

RALEIGH HONORED.—At the late Commencement at Chapel Hill, we observe that Raleigh was specially honored, by the Board of Trustees, though not beyond the merits of the recipients.

Bartholomew F. Moore, Esq., was made Doctor of Civil Laws.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, of the Baptist Church in this city, was made Doctor of Divinity. Mr. P. is a graduate of Wake Forest College.

The following honors were conferred on graduates of the University:

Fabius Haywood Busbee, Bachelor of Arts; and E. Burke Haywood, M. D., Master of Arts, F. J. Haywood, Jr., M. D., Master of Arts, and Rufus S. Tucker, Esq., Master of Arts. Mr. Tucker is the first or second merchant graduate, upon whom this degree has been conferred,—the rules of the University requiring either a three years course of study, with reference to the degree, or the pursuit of one of the learned professions, in order to its attainment.

SUPREME COURT.—This tribunal convened in this city, on yesterday—Chief-Justice Pearson, and Judges Battle and Reade, being present. The Court, after conference and argument, decided that its powers, as now constituted, were not interrupted by anything which has as yet transpired, and proceeded, in the morning, to the examination of applicants for County Court license,—some twenty-two in number—all of whom passed. We learn that it was left to the candidates to decide whether they would apply for license and pay the tax fee, in view of the fact that, under the probable in-coming regime, there will be no County Courts. They decided to stand the examination.

In the afternoon, applicants for Superior Court license were examined.

The names of the classes will appear to-morrow.

FEDERAL COURT.—This tribunal is still in session, making good head way, we learn, with the crowded docket. Most of the cases are for violation of the Revenue laws.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE BY NEGROES.—We learn that, on Friday, as Mr. J. T. Weathers, a very worthy man, residing in the vicinity of Rolesville, was returning homewards from that place, he was surrounded and set upon by eight armed negroes, who demanded his money. He could, of course, make but slight resistance to such a gang of ruffians, and was speedily mastered and robbed of $102 in greenbacks and a part of his clothing. No arrests have been made nor are any of the negroes known. The loss falls very heavily on Mr. Weathers, who is a poor man. An enforcement of the vagrant laws, in the absence of something better, would put a check upon these frequent outrages by idle, roving negroes.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, which met at the University, during Commencement week, consisted of His Excellency, Gov. Worth, President Swain, Gov. Graham, Judge Ruffin, Judge Battle, Treasurer Battle, Hon. D. M. Barringer, Hon. S. F. Phillips, P. C. Cameron, Esq., D. M. Carter, Esq., and F. C. Stieber, Esq. It was resolved by this Board, "as heretofore stated, to request the Faculty of the University to continue at their posts and offer to the young men of North Carolina the usual instruction during the next session.

As it is understood that the Faculty have granted this request of the Trustees, the public may expect the exercises of the University to begin again on Friday, July 17th., 1868.

COMMENCEMENTS.—Commencement exercises come off, the present week, at Wake Forest and Trinity College.

COL. Ames' great Circus and Menagerie will be in Raleigh on Monday, the 22nd. inst.

SEASONABLE RAINS have greatly refreshed the gardens and crops. With a continuance of favorable weather, the latter are highly promising, while the prospect for fruit is all that could be desired.

The Cincinnati Gazette defends General Grant for expelling the poor Hebrews.

THE BUTLER INQUISITION.—The question has repeatedly been asked why Butler did not call before him Mr. Hugh J. Hastings, who has publicly demanded a hearing. We do not believe that he has yet been summoned; but we find in the New York Sun the following, which may account for the hesitation of Butler to bring this witness forward:

"It is reported from Washington that General Butler's committee have summoned Hugh J. Hastings to testify with regard to the alleged impeachment corruption; but Mr. Hastings has not yet received their subpœna. He openly regrets its failure to arrive, and declares himself anxious to appear and testify. We are, of course, not aware what his testimony will really be; but it can be proved that he positively and publicly affirms that he is not only ready to swear that all his efforts in Washington were in favor of conviction, but that Mr. Woolley told him that the whiskey men were not able to raise money to help the President, because 'they had been obliged to pay so damnedly to Butler and other prominent members of the House to keep the whiskey tax at two dollars.' The fact that Mr. Hastings proposes to give evidence of this sort is another reason why he should be summoned in reality and speedily. He performed a conspicuous part in the telegrams which have been published; and if he presumes to circulate reports of an injurious nature respecting members of the Committee, we do not see how they can afford to postpone his examination under oath for a single day."

NEGROES HITCHED TO A PLOW.—A gentleman of this place, who has recently been in the county of Goochland, says that as he was passing along the road his attention was attracted to a unique team hitched to a plow in a field hard by. There was an old negro man and a black girl, both striving to "speed the plow," whilst between the handles, giving direction to its course, was another negro girl.

The gentleman halted, and addressing the old negro, ascertained that he was the father, and the others his children; asking the old man if he did not want to buy a horse, he replied it would cost $100, and "dat was de matter—he didn' had any $100."

Such are the advances these people have made in the way of civilization, and such are the blessings with which freedom has surrounded them. Who ever heard of a negro hitched to a plow in the days of slavery? Nobody. If humanity would not have prevented, economy would have precluded, the operation, as a negro was worth $800 to $2 000, and a horse from $100 to $200.—Fredericksburg Herald.

THE PRESBYTERIAN REUNION.—The New York Sun notes the fact that the Old School and the New School Presbyterian General Assemblies have both agreed to accept the plan of reunion which has been under discussion in those bodies, and to submit it to the approval of the Presbyteries throughout the United States. The Editor says:

"There is but little doubt that this approval will be almost unanimously given, as the great mass of the denomination are in favor of healing the existing breach between its two principal divisions. Whether the smaller bodies, such as the Reformed and the United Presbyterians, will also consent in the movement is less certain; but even if they should decline to do so, the consolidation which will be effected will still be of immense importance, and highly gratifying to all lovers of peace and concord among Christian brethren."

The Evening Express announces that its editors have it from good authority "that positive proof is at hand that convicts Senator Pomeroy of an avowed readiness to sell his vote, and those of three other Radical Senators, for acquittal, for $40,000. The Committee set out expecting to catch Ross, and instead, it is asserted, they have caught Pomeroy. The impression among Western men is that the latter made this offer through Leggett, and his brother in-law, Willis Gaylord."

Colfax says that without the Republicans there would have been no Union, no war, no taxes, no paper money, no civil rights, no liberty of speech and press; and, he might have added, no Speaker Colfax, which would have been a consolation under other calamities.—Boston Post.

Butler entered a Catholic chapel the other day, whereupon the censer boy said to the priest: "Father, hadn't you better hide the candlesticks?"

CONSERVATIVE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CONVENTION.

The following call has just been issued for a National Convention of Conservative soldiers and sailors by the National Executive Committee appointed by the Cleaveland, Ohio, Convention of September 17, 1866:

WASHINGTON, June 4.

In pursuance of a resolution of the National Executive Committee appointed by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention which assembled at Cleaveland on the 17th September, 1866, a National Delegate Convention of all who served in the Union army or navy during the late rebellion, and who are anxious to rescue the country from the rule of the Radical party, is called to meet at New York city on the 4th day of July next. Delegations will be chosen from each State in such manner and of such numbers as the several State Executive Committees may prescribe, and each delegation will cast in all proceedings of the Convention the number of votes to which its State may be entitled in the Electoral College.

General Grant is the candidate of the Radical party, which for three years past has prevented the accomplishment of nearly all the avowed objects of the war and turned to the destruction of the Constitution and the Union all the powers confided to it for their preservation, but he will be no stronger before the people than the policy he represents, if the Democrats and Conservatives cordially unite and nominate against him a statesman or soldier whose record of patriotic service is as unquestioned as his own. The momentous issues between the two parties will then be fairly considered, and the reason, not the prejudice of the people, will determine their choice.

The purpose of this Convention is to advise and co-operate with the Democratic party in presenting to the nation a candidate for President who will command the support of all who desire to extinguish the ravages of the war, abolish the military despotism now ruling the South, give back to the Southern States the rights of self-government and of an equal and fraternal union, and restore to the nation an economical and constitutional government.

[Signed.]

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—In Alamance county, there lives an old uncle, who has a radical nephew, who voted the negro ticket at the last election. Sometime afterwards the young gentlemen visited his relative. They chatted away finely until dinner hour arrived. The old gentleman than told his negro cook to set a table with two plates in the kitchen, and one plate in the regular dining room and divide the dinner. This was done according to his commands, and the nephew was invited into the kitchen to dinner. He went along, not knowing exactly what to do. When he got to the table, he was told to take his seat, and the cook to take hers by his side. This was too much for the young radical. We are informed, he left for parts unknown.

So the physic works, and it will work, until every man who does not belong to the white man's party, is enforced to associate with negroes alone.

Go on, white men, and ram it down their throats until they vomit. It is right and proper. The line between white and black must be drawn as plain as day light.—Danville Times.

Before surrendering the War Office, Stanton destroyed many, very many, papers on file there relating to secret interior party matters, particularly of detective matters and confidential reports, upon which his high handed action was in many instances based. It will never be known how much the independence of his subordinates has been suppressed. In all the branches of his office—the Freedmen's Bureau, the Detective and the Army—he has had hosts of satellites in secret correspondence with him, the matter of which has no doubt been destroyed. In the army the purest and best have had to be extremely cautious of speech among even intimate associates. The army has been degraded by his minions. A better time dawns.—N. Y. World.

The attempt to impeach the President has failed. It is no longer worth while to spend much time in discussing why. Every one of his vices marshaled a cohort in his defence. And we have no doubt, if the whole truth is ever known, that we shall see Free Masonry acting as quartermaster in that camp and Chief Jesuit in that council chamber.—Wendell Phillips.

An Indian requested an agent in Northern Iowa to furnish him with whiskey for a young warrior who had been bitten by a rattlesnake, intimating that four quarts would be necessary. "Four quarts!" repeated the agent with surprise; "as much as that!" "Yes," replied the Indian, "snake very big."

Senator Hendricks has been looming up during the past few days, but the friends of Hancock assert that he will be the nominee on the third ballot. Pennsylvanians here say that Hancock can carry the Keystone State by fifty thousand majority.—Wash. Letter in Baltimore Gazette.

Mrs. Beecher Stowe, after a winter's residence in Florida, says that "the Southern people are no more inclined to resist the laws or to foster the spirit of rebellion than Vermont is. They desire only peace and the restoration of the Union."

It comes out that Colfax was a Know-Nothing, which fact will help him with foreigners about as much as Grant's order expelling Jews from the department of the Tennessee will help him with that class of citizens.

Gov. Jenkins, the President of the Convention of Florida, has presented to the Secretary of the State an engrossed copy of the new Constitution of that State. The words "black" or "white" do not occur in that instrument.

Grant has written to the House Committee on Military Affairs asking for an increase of one third in the pay of Army officers.—He hasn't a word to say for the privates.

A writer in the Buffalo Courier describes the miscegenation resolutions adopted at Chicago as "a semi-radical-don't care-to-speak-out-because-there's-a-nigger-in-the-fence platform."

Martin Van Buren was the only man who filled such a round of offices as Governor, United States Senator, Secretary of State, Minister in England, Vice President and President.

The Nashville Gazette calls upon President Johnson for a proclamation of general amnesty.

MORE DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES—GRANT'S OWN HOME REPUDIATES HIM!

WASHINGTON, June 8, M.

The municipal election at Galena, Illinois, Grant's home, goes Democratic by 250 majority. The Democrats have also carried Racine, Wisconsin.

THE WASHINGTON MUNICIPAL ELECTION, —FRAUD AND FORCE,—BEAUTIES OF RADICALISM.

WASHINGTON, June 8, M.

The new City Council is organizing in secret but stormy session. A row of some kind occurred inside, causing half a dozen policemen to obtrude on the secrecy of the session, by jumping into the windows. It is impossible to obtain details of the trouble.

LATER.—The Register, on an oath of some Judges that illegal votes were cast in the Fifth Ward, gave certificates of election to the Radical candidates—giving a majority to that party.

Mayor Wallach gave certificates to the Democrats.

Each party elected presiding officers of each Board, and when the Council met in joint session, —the two Presidents being present,—amid intense excitement the Radical President declared Bowen elected, and he was sworn in under noisy protests from the Conservative President and members.

Wallach has locked the office of Mayor and matters are progressing very noisily.

THE SMELLING COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, June 8, M.

The Corruption investigations, under Butler and Logan, who alone of the seven are present, are taking an alarmingly wide range. Nothing authentic is known beyond the gossip of witnesses, but enough has transpired to create a general panic among politicians. The distrust of Butler is growing. The early discharge of the Committee from further investigations is probable.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, June 8, P. M.

SENATE.—A joint resolution, removing the Harper's Ferry suit from Jefferson county, Virginia, to the United States Circuit Court, passed. Willey maintained that it was impossible to obtain a fair trial in Jefferson county, on account of the hostility of the people to the United States.

The Omnibus admission bill was resumed and the amendment restoring Alabama to the list was discussed all day, without a vote. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Judiciary Committee was directed to enquire why Mr. Davis' trial was delayed.

A bill appropriating money for the Captors of Mr. Davis was referred to the Appropriation Committee.

A bill for inaugurating the Southern State officers, and convening the Legislatures, was referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

A bill taxing United States Bonds for National purposes was considered. A motion to table was lost, by 15 to 109. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, by 88 to 24.

A resolution, receiving the Chinese Ambassy, to-morrow, at 11 o'clock, was adopted.

The speaker announced a petition from Woolley.

Butler moved its reference to the Corruption Committee.

The Democrats objected, because only two of the Committee were in the city.

After discussion, the petition was referred, without being read 64 to 61.

Eldridge moved to suspend the rules to receive the purgation of Woolley. Negatived.

A resolution bringing Woolley to the bar of the House was adopted, when after hearing questions somewhat indefinitely stated, and with an understanding that it was by order of the House, Woolley declared a willingness to answer.

The Conference report on the admission of Arkansas was adopted. Having been adopted by both Houses, it now goes to the President.

Recess taken.

FROM WASHINGTON—THE MUNICIPAL IMBROGLIO.

WASHINGTON, June 8, P. M.

Woolley remains in custody, waiting the Committee's convenience.

Shortly after being sworn, Bowen, with the aid of a lock-smith, took possession of the Mayor's Office.

The Radical Aldermen adjourned to noon to-morrow.

The Conservatives have issued a protest against Bowen.

COUNTY ELECTIONS IN SOUTH CAROLINA —DEMOCRATIC GAINS.

CHARLESTON, June 8, P. M.

Returns from the County elections, held last week, show that the Radicals have again carried most of the Counties, but by reduced majorities.

Many counties in the interior, which gave Radical majorities in April, have now elected Democratic county tickets. In some of these the registration showed a large negro majority, so that hundreds of negroes must have voted the Democratic ticket, and hundreds more have not voted at all.

DAILY SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9, 1868.

BE A WOMAN.

Oft I've heard a gentle mother,
As the twilight hours began,
Pleading with a son on duty,
Urging him to be a man.
But unto a blue eyed daughter,
Though with love's word quite as ready,
Points she out the other duty—
"Strive, my dear, to be a lady."

What's a lady? Is it something
Made up of hoops, and silks, and airs,
Used to decorate the parlor,
Like the fancy rings and chairs?
Is it one that wastes on novels
Every feeling that is human?
If 'tis this to be a lady,
'Tis not this to be a woman.

Mother, than, unto your daughter
Speak of something higher far
Than to be mere fashion's lady—
"Woman" is the brightest star;
If you, in your strong affection,
Urge your son to be a true man,
Urge your daughter no less strongly
To arise and be a woman.

Yes a woman! brightest model
Of that high and perfect beauty,
Where the mind, and soul, and body,
Blend to work out life's great duty.
Be a woman! naught is higher
On the gilded list of fame;
On the catalogue of virtue
There's no brighter, holier name.

Be a woman! on to duty;
Raise the world from all that's low,
Place high in the social heaven
Virtue's fair and radiant bow.
Lend thy influence to each effort
That shall raise our nature human;
Be not fashion's gilded lady—
Be a brave, whole-souled, true woman.

From the Richmond Dispatch.

A BERRY ANECDOTE.

Dear Dispatch,—You who know and hear all the "good things" are doubtless familiar with this old story, but I think it too good to be kept buried, and therefore submit it as "A very good berry story"—very!

"Once upon a time there might have been seen" a very anxious merchant by the name of Berry, with the fear of a bank protest before his eyes, entering the office of a very crabbed, crusty old "business man," who was wont to do everything by the square and compass of "business law." Berry, with some apologetic hesitation, presented a bill which was not mature. In great indignation this "first class business man" completely withered the hapless Berry with the following avalanche. Looking at the date of the bill, he shouted: "What do you mean, sir? You have presented your bill berry before it was due berry. Your father, the elder-berry, would not have been such a goose berry. You need not look so black-berry. I don't care a straw-berry!" Whereupon the Berry, bruised, mashed, and a little of its flavor gone, incontinently "sloped," declaring, sotto voce, "You are not worth a whortle-berry."

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of seire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In each case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
